Granted, there are actually, supposedly, tens of 1000s of associates during the Warrior Discussion board. Holding in mind that plenty of individuals associates aren't active plus a large amount of them have many accounts and in many cases providing them the benefit of the doubt, there are actually in excess of seven billion individuals in the world - and 80% of them use personal computers. The Warrior Discussion board is not even huge enough to qualify as just one small corner with the globe.
