The past of planted fish tanks, goes back to the starting of the hobby, which began seriously in the early 1930's. I looked after to set up in my early years in the Hobby journals, such as Water Life, the Aquarist and others. I keep in mind well checking out advertising and marketing project for Everglades Aquatic Child spaces. This nursery wased established by A Mr. Greenberg, which ran this company for numerous years, and lived I realize to 90 odd years. They provided a huge different of plants, and possibly plenty of facilities and enthusiasts bought from them in those and succeeding years.
