

Centrale pub pour tous les sites Internet - Faites connaitre votre entreprise, votre commerce! :: Your Favorite Site

www.bolanews88.com/

<https://cyberagenbola.com>

Rumors that the Manchester City midfielder, Yaya Toure will soon leave the "English" towards Italy. The Citizens expectation that Toure will return to them to compete with Chelsea next season is likely to soon disappear. According to those reports The Guardian, Toure had almost agreed to move to Inter Milan. The Guardian wrote that the Vice-President of Inter, Javier Zanetti are willing to spend big money to be able to boost achievement Inter next season. Toure is known as one of the high-paid players at the Etihad. Meanwhile, according to Metro, Toure will formally notify it to the management Man City this weekend. A year later, Toure relationship with Man City look less good. Inter-party himself reportedly gave an offer to the 32-year-old player sebesar 4,3 million pounds for a three-year contract period. While Toure wants a longer contract, which is five years. Demand related to the duration of the ignition Toure will force Inter to spend around 14.3 million pounds. This season, Toure contributed ten goals from 28 games he played with Manchester City. He joined Etihad since April 2013 with a four-year contract. He obtained a payment of 220 thousand pounds per week.

Rumors that the Manchester City midfielder, Yaya Toure will soon leave the "English" towards Italy. The Citizens expectation that Toure will return to them to compete with Chelsea next season is likely to soon disappear. According to those reports The Guardian, Toure had almost agreed to move to Inter Milan. The Guardian wrote that the Vice-President of Inter, Javier Zanetti are willing to

Date created: 05 01 2020