Trekking in Morocco - Berber villages Trek - 3 Days

<https://www.toubkal-voyages.com/berber-villages-trek-3-days.php>

Challenge yourself to climb the highest peak in North Africa in 3 days. The tour starts and ends in the vibrant city of Marrakech, and includes transportation to and from Imlil. We will trek with a local English speaking guide, a local cook and mules to carry our luggage. It is a difficult walk rather than a climb, and anyone in good physical condition can reach the top. Make sure to bring your camera; the views from the top are spectacular. Mount Toubkal 4167m is the highest peak in North Africa, and is a trekking peak not involve two climbing days include walking in crampons holding a security for ax (November to April). The route has been designed for hikers willing, as the climb is not technical, but involves some scrambling and snow easy runs.
